

Certificate of Insurance - Due February 2, 2009

(Exhibit Management requires this certificate from all exhibitors.)

General Information:

Exhibitors insuring their exhibit materials, goods and/or wares of exhibits against theft, damage by fire, accident or loss of any kind, do so at their own expense. The Dermatology Nurses' Association (DNA) requires that all exhibitors provide proof of liability insurance at least 30 days prior to setting up your exhibit booth. Coverage must be carried through the duration of the exhibit program, including set up and dismantle.

The certificate must name the Dermatology Nurses' Association (DNA) and the Hilton San Francisco as an additional insured party. The certificate must state a minimum insurance of two (2) million U.S. dollars and the territory of coverage must include the United States.

Contact your insurance provider or visit with either AON, phone: 212-627-7400 (<http://www.aon.com>) or John Buttine Inc., phone: 800-964-4454 (<http://www.buttine.com>).

Dermatology Nurses' Association does not endorse any insurance company and liability insurance is available from many other business insurers. The exhibitor agrees to make no claim of any nature, for any reason whatsoever against the Society for loss, theft, damage, or destruction of goods, nor for damage of any nature, nor for any negligence, malfeasance or misfeasance, nor for failure to hold any portions of the Conference, in part or total, as scheduled.
